FRONTLINE "The Medicated Child"

1/8/08 10:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This program focuses on the effects of treating children of behavioral problems with anti-psychotic medications. As the debate over medicating children continues to grow, this documentary confronts psychiatrists, researchers and big pharma about the risks and benefits of prescription drugs for troubled children.

INDEPENDENT LENS

1/10/08 10:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

Filmmaker Lizzie Gottlieb searches to understand her brother's strange and extraordinary life after he is diagnosed at age 21 with Asperger's Syndrome, a high-functioning form of autism.

ROLLING

1/13/08 3:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This documentary captures the struggles and triumphs of three wheelchair users as they battle to maintain their independence, face insensitivity within the health care system, and interact with well-intentioned families and friends. Footage of Galen Buckwalter, Vicki Elman and Ernie Wallengren's intimate private and sometimes humorous everyday experiences offer a glimpse into the realities of the wheelchair-bound in an independence-minded culture.

INDEPENDENT LENS "Mapping Stem Cell Research: Terra Incognita"

1/17/08 10:00 PM 90 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This documentary brings the stem cell debate to the forefront and examines the constantly evolving interplay between the promise of new discoveries, the controversy of modern science and the courage of people living with devastating disease and injury. The stem cell debate becomes personal when Dr. Jack Kessler, a prominent neurologist, shifts his diabetes research to stem cell research when his daughter is paralyzed from the waist down.

YOUR BRAIN: A USER'S GUIDE

2/17/08 5:00 PM 60 MINUTES TALK

This special presents The Brain Fitness Program, based on neuro-plasticity, the ability of the brain to change and adapt – even rewire itself. In the past two years, a team of scientists have developed computer-based stimulus sets that drive beneficial chemical, physical and functional changes in the brain. In this innovative and life-altering program, Dr. Michael Merzenich of the University of California San Francisco and his colleagues have been leading this effort – to bring research findings, along with a scientifically based set of brain exercises. Peter Coyote narrates.

UNNATURAL CAUSES: IS INEQUALITY MAKING US SICK? "In Sickness and In Wealth."

3/27/08 10:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This is a story about health, but it's not about doctors or drugs. Set mostly in Louisville, Kentucky, it's a detective story out to solve the mystery of what's stalking and killing so many Americans before their time. The program uncovers the connections between healthy bodies and healthy bank accounts – and why residents of so many other nations, including many poorer countries, live longer and healthier lives. Solutions, evidence suggests, may lie not in more pills but in more equality.

RETIREMENT REVOLUTION "Hazards and Vicissitudes"

3/31/08 10:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This episode illustrates the origins of retirement, what it means for baby boomers' financial futures and how it has evolved over the past several decades, from the Great Depression to the birth of Social Security and Medicare to today's climate of economic uncertainty.

3. ARTS & CULTURE

INDEPENDENT LENS "The Philadelphia Orchestra: Music From the Inside Out"

1/12/08 4:30 AM 90 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This film is a musical journey featuring the 105 musicians of The Philadelphia Orchestra by focusing on the mystery and magic of music itself, creating a mosaic of the stories, ideas and experiences that form the heart of these musicians' lives inside and outside the concert hall.

BARBARA WEISBERGER: EN POINTE

3/18/08 9:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

Barbara Weisberger: En Pointe is an original biographical documentary that chronicles the impassioned life of the founder of the Pennsylvania Ballet and celebrates her significant contribution to the development of ballet in the United States. The title of the documentary is taken from ballet's central image - the ballerina performing on the tips of her toes - one of the most difficult and delicate techniques in the art of dance. Like Barbara Weisberger's life, mastering En Pointe requires years of commitment, and reflects a simultaneous expression of skill, strength and suppleness.

LIVE FROM LINCOLN CENTER "New York City Opera: Madama Butterfly"

3/20/08 8:00 PM 3 HOURS DRAMA

New York City Opera presents Giacomo Puccini's Madama Butterfly, which tells the story of a marriage between an American Navy officer and his geisha bride. When he abandons her after his tour of duty, he takes her love, her honor and her dreams for the future. When he returns to claim their son, she takes matters into her own hands. The poignant story of a disastrous clash of cultures stars James Valenti and Shu-Ying Li.

4. EDUCATION

ISSUES PA 2008 "Education: Success in Stages"

1/13/08 7:00 PM 60 MINUTES PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In this program, the following topics are explored: technology and the future of education; early childhood education and lifelong success; high education institutions and the dramatic impacts on the towns or cities where they're located; and family education and the role family communication plays in early childhood education.

THE CLINTON 12

2/3/08 2:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This documentary captures a pivotal moment in the American civil rights movement. Award-winning actor James Earl Jones narrates the compelling story of the desegregation of the first public high school in the South following the U.S. Supreme Court's Brown vs. the Board of Education decision.

This documentary explores the impact of the Internet on adolescence through the eyes of teens and their parents. The program examines the complicated new lines being drawn between the real and the virtual worlds for today's children and teens, and for their parents, who often find themselves on the other side of a new digital divide.

6. WAR

HITLER'S ATLANTIC WALL

2/19/08 9:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

The exciting story of the German Atlantic line of defense during the Second World War.

FRONTLINE "Rules of Engagement"

2/19/08 10:00 PM 60 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

This program reveals the untold story of what happened in Haditha, Iraq, where 24 of the town's residents were killed by U.S. forces in what many in the media branded as "Iraq My Lai." This documentary investigates this incident and what it can tell us about the moral and legal landscape the U.S. military faces in Iraq.

FRONTLINE "Bush's War" Pt. 1 & 2

3/25/08 & 3/26/08 9:00 PM 180 MINUTES DOCUMENTARY

9/11 and Al Qaeda, Afghanistan and Iraq, WMD and the Insurgency, Guantanamo, Abu Ghraib, Fallujah, and the Surge. For six years FRONTLINE has been revealing those stories in meticulous detail, and the political dramas played out at the highest levels - George W. Bush and Tony Blair, Dick Cheney and Colin Powell, Donald Rumsfeld, George Tenet, Condoleezza Rice, Osama Bin Laden.

Now, on the fifth anniversary of the Iraq invasion, the full saga will unfold in a special four-hour broadcast over two consecutive nights on PBS, titled Bush's War.

Drawing on one of the richest archives in broadcast journalism (FRONTLINE's 40+ films), veteran producer Michael Kirk (Cheney's Law; Endgame; The Lost Year in Iraq; The Dark Side; The Torture Question; Rumsfeld's War; The Man Who Knew; War Behind Closed Doors; Gunning for Saddam, Target America) also delivers new reporting and fresh interviews. Bush's War will be the definitive documentary analysis of one of the most challenging periods in the nation's history.

"Parts of this history have been told before - the invasion of Afghanistan, torture, flawed intelligence and the invasion of Iraq, failures in the American occupation, and the saber-rattling over Iran," Kirk says, "But no one has laid out the entire narrative to reveal in one epic story, the scope and detail of how this war began and how it has been fought, both on the ground and deep inside the government."
